

Aluminium Sheet and Plate

We are proud to announce the introduction of Aluminium sheet and plate to our product portfolio

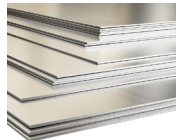

The products have synergy with our existing range and make us a full-service provider for many of our customers' needs for flat products; carbon steel, stainless steel and now Aluminium.

Please see our initial product launch below, with the intention of expanding as time goes on. If you have specific requirements, please register your interest with your Steel & Tube Sales Representative.

- + Prompt delivery from North and South island locations
- + All your material needs under one brand, nationwide
- + A selection of tempers, and surface covers
